Farmers and Ranchers Management Workshop

The Alamo Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) Area, Inc., a nonprofit organization, in partnership with the Texas Mexico Border Coalition will be sponsoring a Farmers and Ranchers Management Workshop on June 2, 2007 at the Southside High School Auditorium in San Antonio, Texas. The program is scheduled from 12:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to talk to Omar Garza with the Texas Mexico Border Coalition and Juan Garcia with the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Farm Service Agency (FSA) concerning the assistance they offer to agricultural producers. Various other topics of interest include Knowing What Your Wildlife Eats presented by Chancey Lewis with the Texas Parks and Wildlife, an update on Premise and Animal I.D. by Dr. Bob Hillman with the Texas Animal Health Commission, Agriculture Statistics by David Abbe with the Texas Agricultural Statistics and The Future of Organics on Farms and Ranches presented by Bruce Deuley, Master-Natural Gardner, and host of Organic Matters, a radio/television talk show. Dr. Antonio Calles, Geneticist with Heartbrand Beef, will round out the program with The Meat that We Raise vs. the Meat that We Eat.

A FREE dinner will be offered and is sponsored by Capital Farm Credit and Heartland Beef Company. Refreshments will be served courtesy of K2 Ranch and Cattle Company and RSR Ranch. Numerous sponsors have donated door prizes which will be given throughout the afternoon. Continuing Education Units (CEU) will be offered to those with a pesticide applicators license.

There is limited seating, please reserve your seat by email to farmworkshops@yahoo.com or call (210) 735-3391 before May 30th. Additional information can also be found at our website www.alamorcd.org.
